October 20th, 2018 - She excels at depicting both the complex family relationships in the Weber household and Mozart's musical struggles as he began to write and produce his first operas. Marrying Mozart shows the human side of genius and in that way it is more compelling than many Mozart biographies I've read.

Stephanie Cowell MARRYING MOZART

October 31st, 2018 - MARRYING MOZART was a great hit in its first stage production with Mozart's music called a singspiel. It ran for four performances in NYC to pretty much sold-out houses. Many thanks to Opera Moderne and Dicapo Opera and all the gifted actors and singers.

Marrying Mozart by Stephanie Cowell Paperback Barnes

November 10th, 2018 - Marrying Mozart is a wonderful novel that sets the stage for the composer's marriage to his wife Constanze. Some may not know that Mozart actually fell in love with and intended to marry her sister Aloysia before she ran away with another man and broke his heart.
